

TTD Launches Srivari Vaidya Seva Program

Tirupati, June 5 | TPN Bureau

Following the directives of Chief Minister Nara Chandrababu Naidu, the Tirumala Tirupati Devasthanams (TTD) launched the "Srivari Vaidya Seva" program on a pilot basis in TTD hospitals. TTD EOM Ravichandra officially launched a specially designed IT application to facilitate the initiative. Speaking on the occasion, Ravichandra stated that the program aims to make the expertise of medical professionals from around the world accessible to Srivari devotees. The pilot phase will be used to gather feedback from participating doctors to further refine the initiative. Ravichandra explained that TTD will provide a structured platform for experts willing to offer voluntary services in education, medicine, IT, and other fields. TTD will ensure comfortable accommodation and food arrangements for the volunteering experts in Tirumala and Tirupati. Super-specialty medical experts can volunteer for three days, while MBBS doctors can serve for seven days. The registered medical professionals from the Hindu religion can choose convenience, IT, and other fields. TTD will ensure comfortable accommodation and food arrangements for the volunteering experts in Tirumala and Tirupati. Super-specialty medical experts can volunteer for three days, while MBBS doctors can serve for seven days. The registered medical professionals from the Hindu religion can choose convenient slots online through the official TTD website. They will render services across TTD-affiliated institutions, including Ashwini Hospital, SVIMS, Bird Hospital, Ayurveda Hospital, Sri Padmavati Children's Hospital, and SV Goshala. [1] https://www.thehindu.com [2] https://www.thehindu.com

[3] https://news.tirumala.org [4] https://www.thehindu.com During the launch, several prominent medical figures expressed their gratitude virtually, including Hyderabad Eye Hospital Senior Consultant Professor Venkatachalam, Krishna Institute of Medical Science Academic Director Professor RA Shastri, Vizag Andhra Medical College Vice Principal Professor Rajendra Prasad, and Bangalore ESI Hospital Ortho HOD Purushottam. The event witnessed active participation from administrative heads and hospital directors who reviewed the initial technical framework. The launch program concluded successfully with senior leadership oversight from Additional EO CH Venkaiah Chowdhury, JEO Sarath, and JEO Veerabrahmam.

Tuda Chairman Reviews Planning and Infrastructure Projects

Tirupati, June 5 | TPN Bureau

Tuda Chairman Dollars Diwakar Reddy held a comprehensive review meeting with the officials of the Planning Department at the Tuda office. The discussion focused primarily on accelerating ongoing developmental works, establishing robust infrastructure, and implementing strategic future urban plans within the Tuda jurisdiction. During the meeting, Dollars Diwakar Reddy ordered the department staff to resolve all pending applications regarding building permits and layout approvals as quickly as possible. He emphasized that all clearances must strictly adhere to existing rules while ensuring that the general public faces no administrative difficulties or delays. Furthermore, he directed the team to prepare upcoming development designs in accordance with the Master Plan guidelines, aiming for the comprehensive development of Tirupati and its surrounding regions. He stated that the Planning Department must function more actively to achieve planned urban development and city beautification. The senior leadership guided the session to ensure all departmental targets are met efficiently. The review meeting concluded successfully with key planning inputs from Tuda Secretary NV Srikanth Babu, CPO Devi Kumari, and Tuda Chairman Dollars Diwakar Reddy.

Apollo Surge-2026 Focuses on Modern Surgical Advancements

Chittoor, June 4 | TPN Bureau

The Continuing Medical Education programme 'Apollo Surge-2026 - Sharpening Surgical Minds' was held at the Apollo Institute of Medical Sciences and Research (AIMSR). Organized by the Department of General Surgery, the conference educated medical professionals on robotic surgeries, organ transplants, and laparoscopic advancements. The event was inaugurated by Apollo University Vice Chancellor H Vinod Bhatt, Vice Chancellor Designate Nitin M Nagarkar, AIMSR Dean Alfred J Augustine, Associate Dean

Ramya Ramakrishnan, and APMC Observer IV Ramachandra Rao. Renowned experts shared insights, including Raj Palaniappan

on robotic surgery and Ajay Kumar Sharma on kidney transplants. Muralieedharan M discussed acute pancreatitis, while Tirupati SVIMS

Radio logy Head Vijayalakshmi detailed diagnostic imaging. Kumud Kumar Dhital spoke on heart transplants, Meera Raghavan handled robotic pelvic surgery, and Kalaya rasan lectured on hepato-biliary procedures. A panel discussion on obstructive jaundice featured Y Muttaswaraiyah, Kondareddy, and Y Ramakrishna. The evening concluded with a hands-on Laparoscopic Endotrainer workshop. The successful event was coordinated by Organizing Chairman and General Surgery Head Y Ramakrishna, Organizing Secretary N Uday Kumar, and various participating faculty members.

Protecting Environment is Everyone's Responsibility: Judge

Chittoor, June 5 | TPN Bureau

District Judge Aruna Sarika stated that protecting the environment is an individual and collective responsibility. Speaking after planting saplings on the local court premises to mark World Environment Day, she highlighted that climate change is severely impacting the globe, making ecological balance essential. Sarika warned that global shifts like the Super El Nino are expected to cause unpredictable rainfall, extreme temperatures, prolonged droughts, and sudden floods. She emphasized that India faces potential risks to its monsoons, agricultural output, water resources, and overall public health. To counter these threats, she suggested implementing immediate water conservation, rainwater harvesting, intensive tree plantation, and a reduction in plastic consumption. She urged every citizen to plant and protect at least one sapling. The plantation drive and awareness program saw active involvement from judicial officers and legal representatives. The event concluded successfully with key participation from First Additional District Judge K Srinivasulu, Principal Junior Civil Judge D Umadevi, and Mobile Magistrate P Vennela.

Protect Environment Through Planting: MLA Charitareddy

Kurnool, June 5 | TPN Bureau

Panyam MLA Gouru Charitarreddy and Municipal Corporation Commissioner Challa Obulesu stated that planting saplings protects the environment and improves public health. Celebrating World Environment Day, they planted saplings in Shantinagar, Ward 21, and signed conservation documents to hand over their care to locals. Charitareddy urged everyone to plant saplings to maintain ecological balance and expand the green belt for future generations. Commissioner Obulesu announced that 20,000 saplings will be planted this monsoon season. He emphasized that signing care documents ensures community responsibility, adding that growth will be monitored across colonies, parks, and government offices. Every family was requested to rear at least one sapling. The event saw participation from engineering, horticulture, and sanitation staff, including SE Ramanamurthy, ME Manohar Reddy, and DEE Krishnalatha.

Nellore Gears Up for YogaAndhra-2026

Nellore, June 5 | TPN Bureau

Joint Collector Mogili Venkateswarlu has directed officials to coordinate effectively to ensure the success of the YogaAndhra-2026 programs across the district, celebrating the 12th International Yoga Day. Speaking at a meeting in the Nellore Collectorate, he emphasized making yoga a lifestyle choice for physical and mental well-being. The main district-level celebrations will happen at the A.C. Subbareddy Stadium on June 21, with AYUSH-led demonstrations at Swa-rnaCheruvu on June 7 and 17, Maipadu Beach on June 8, and Ramatheertham Beach on June 16. Thematic events with residential and voluntary groups are set for June 12, with competition starting June 7. Venkateswarlu ordered the creation of village and ward yoga teams to boost participation among students, youth, and women.

He instructed Swarna Grama and Swarna Ward officials to assist citizens with mandatory registrations on the YogaAndhra-2026 website. The coordination meet and subsequent teleconference with MPDOs involved District Revenue Officer Vijay Kumar, ITDA Project Officer Srinivasulu, and DRDA PD Nagaraju Kumari.

Kovur MLA Calls for Complete Voter List Revision

Vidavalur, June 5 | TPN Bureau

Kovur MLA Vemireddy Prashanthi Reddy has urged party workers and leaders to collaborate closely to ensure the voter list revision process achieves 100 percent success ahead of the upcoming local body elections. Speaking at the Booth Level Agents (BLA) and SIR Meeting in Vidavalur, she expressed gratitude to the cadre for making the recent Hybrid Mahanadu a major state-level success. The MLA emphasized that despite financial challenges inherited from the previous administration, Chief Minister Nara Chandrababu Naidu has driven growth through development and welfare initiatives, including the successful implementation of the 'Super Six' schemes over the past 24 months. Prashanthi Reddy instructed unit in-charges and BLAs across 324 polling booths to strictly conduct house mapping. She ordered the removal of deceased voters, inclusion of eligible youth, and elimination of fraudulent entries, while urging active participation on social media via the 'My TDP' application. Celebrating Environment Day, she also advised leaders to travel door-to-door on bicycles for voter mapping to promote environmental protection. The program concluded with addresses and active participation from Chief Minister Nara Chandrababu Naidu, Kovur MLA Vemireddy Prashanthi Reddy, and various regional booth level agents.

Resolve Grievances Through PrajaDarbar: Kotamreddy

Nellore, June 5 | TPN Bureau

Nellore Rural MLA Kotamreddy Sridhar Reddy has urged rural residents to actively utilize the PrajaDarbar initiative to get their grievances addressed swiftly. He emphasized that the primary objective of the administration is to solve public problems and ensure government services remain highly accessible to the common citizens. Speaking during the PrajaDarbar program held at the Nellore Rural MLA office, Sridhar Reddy stated that the office remains open and available to the public daily from 7 am to 8 pm to address various community issues. Following the specific directives issued by Chief Minister Nara Chandrababu Naidu and State Minister Nara Lokesh, the PrajaDarbar program is officially structured to take place every Friday from 10 am to 12 noon. The initiative seeks to establish a direct channel between the public and leadership for immediate grievance redressal. Telugu Desam Party State Spokesperson Kotamreddy Giridhar Reddy also joined the program, interacting with applicants and reviewing grievances. The leaders assured the public that all representations would be systematically tracked and resolved in coordination with respective department officials. A large number of local residents from various villages and wards attended the session to submit petitions regarding infrastructure, welfare schemes, and civic amenities. The program concluded with a review meeting involving key leaders to streamline the grievance resolution process. The event saw the active participation of former city mayor Nandimandalam Banu Sri, cluster in-charge Sabir Khan, and cluster in-charge Kanuparthi Gangadhar.

Youth Urged to Become Entrepreneurs via MSME Schemes

Tirupati, June 5 | TPN Bureau

District Collector Venkateswar has urged youth to utilize MSME schemes implemented by the Central and State governments to enter the self-employment sector. He visited and inspected Sri Akshara Big Prints, established under the "One Family - One Entrepreneur" initiative at Annamayya Circle in Tirupati. Speaking at the venue, Venkateswar advised unemployed youth to seek self-employment opportunities through government programs rather than waiting for jobs. He emphasized that the MSME sector enables individuals to achieve financial growth while generating employment for others. The Collector commended the high-quality products manufactured at Sri Akshara Big Prints, which utilizes advanced Japanese technology and international standards, stating that such enterprises serve as an inspiration for young individuals. Haribabu Maddineni, the head of Big Prints, explained that the company provides diverse printing solutions and expressed gratitude for the Collector's visit. He highlighted that the enterprise successfully created multiple local job opportunities. The inspection concluded following discussions regarding industrial growth and operational standards between District Collector Venkateswar, Sri Akshara Big Prints head Haribabu Maddineni, and local enterprise representatives.

Police Must Prioritize Mental Peace and Health: SP

Tirupati, June 5 | TPN Bureau

District SP Subbaraidu participated in the "Heartfulness Meditation" program organized at the district parade ground by the Tirupati District Police Department. The initiative aimed to improve physical fitness, mental peace, stress control, and operational efficiency among police personnel. Subbaraidu joined the staff in practicing yoga and meditation, highlighting that long duty hours cause personnel to neglect their well-being. He emphasized that physical and mental health are equal priorities. He stated that yoga builds mental stability, self-confidence, and concentration, while helping individuals overcome health problems and develop a positive mindset. He urged personnel suffering from health issues to integrate meditation into their daily routines to provide effective public service. Furthermore, the SP called upon officers and staff across the district, including Sri Kalahasti, to join ongoing yoga programs and embrace a healthy lifestyle. A large number of police personnel participated and practiced the techniques. The successful event concluded with active administrative support from Additional SP Administration Venkata Rao, Additional SP Peace and Order Ravi Manoharachari, and Additional SP Crimes Srinivasulu.